

Implementing Federal Law “Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act

This new federal law exempts qualified active and retired law enforcement officers from local and State prohibitions on the carrying of concealed firearms while off-duty across state lines.

Who is Eligible to Carry Concealed Firearms Under this Law?

A qualified active or retired law enforcement officer who is carrying the proper identification may carry a concealed firearm across state lines.

However, private citizens are allowed to prohibit the possession of a concealed firearm on their property. A State can restrict the possession of a concealed weapon on its property (i.e. park, school, building, etc.).

What does “qualified law enforcement officer” mean?

A “qualified law enforcement officer” means an employee of a governmental agency who:

1. is authorized by law to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, or prosecution of, or the incarceration of any person for, any violation of law, and has statutory powers of arrest;
2. is authorized by the agency to carry a firearm;
3. is not the subject of any disciplinary action by the agency;
4. meets standards established by the agency which require the employee to regularly qualify in the use of a firearm;
5. is not under the influence of alcohol or another intoxicating or hallucinatory drug or substance;
6. is not prohibited by Federal law from receiving a firearm.

A qualified retired law enforcement officer is an individual who:

1. retired in good standing from service with a public agency as a law enforcement officer for reasons other than mental insanity;
2. before retirement was authorized by law to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, or prosecution of, or the incarceration of any person for, any violation of law, and had statutory powers of arrest;

3. before retirement was regularly employed as a law enforcement officer for a total of 15 years or more or completed any applicable probationary period of such service, and then retired early due to a service connected disability;
4. has a non-forfeitable right to benefits under the retirement plan of the agency;
5. during the past 12 months has met, at his/her own expense, the State of residency's standards for training and qualification for active law enforcement officers to carry firearms;
6. is not under the influence of alcohol or another intoxicating or hallucinatory drug or substance;
7. is not prohibited by Federal law from receiving a firearm.

How do I qualify under the provisions of this bill?

A qualified retired law enforcement officer must carry on your person a photo id issued by the agency from which you retired from service as a law enforcement officer that indicates that you have been tested or otherwise found by the agency to meet the standards established by the agency for training and qualification for active law enforcement to carry a firearm of the same type as the concealed firearm.

Or

A qualified retired law enforcement officer must carry a photo id issued by the agency from which you retired from service as a law enforcement officer and a certification issued by the State in which you reside that indicates that you have been tested or otherwise found by the state to meet the standards established by the State for training and qualification for active law enforcement officers to carry a firearm of the same type as the concealed firearm within the past 12 months.
