Arkansas Florida Louisiana Michigan Mississippi Missouri
North Carolina Ohio Oklahoma Utah

Washington Honors Non-Resident Permits/Licenses.

How to Apply for A Permit

Where do I apply for a concealed pistol license?

You may complete an application form at one of the following law enforcement offices:

- If you live in the unincorporated area of a county you must apply in person at your sheriff's office.
- If you live in an incorporated city within the county, you may apply in person at either the city police department or sheriff's office.
- If you are not a Washington State resident, you may apply at any local law enforcement agency in Washington.

What documents will I need to bring with me?

You will need to bring the following:

- Picture identification such as a Washington State driver license or identification card. If you don't have a Washington State driver license or identification card, you must provide proof you have lived in the state for at least the last 90 days.
- The $55.25 fee in cash, check, or money order made payable to the law enforcement agency. This fee is non-refundable.

- If you are in the military, your military ID and orders listing your station location.

Non-Resident Permits

Non-Residents apply the same way that Residents do. See Resident Permit Section above. I know of no Police/Sheriff Departments that will issue by mail. You must make a trip to Washington to apply.
